February 14, 2024 (Oak Hill, NY) — Grey Fox Bluegrass Festival returns to the idyllic grounds of Walsh Farm in Oak Hill, NY for another unforgettable retreat of music, magic, and memories July 17-21, featuring Del McCoury Band, Molly Tuttle & Golden Highway, Yonder Mountain String Band, The Steeldrivers, and many more. Dry Branch Fire Squad, the festival's longtime host outfit, will once again deliver top-notch entertainment and storytelling throughout the weekend, while newly minted artist-in-residence Della Mae are poised for a number of enthralling cameos across several stages. Also appearing at the 24th annual Grey Fox Bluegrass Festival will be GRAMMY-nominated, three-time IBMA-winning all-star female supergroup Sister Sadie, Celtic-rock sensation SCYTHIAN, singer-songwriter and guitarist Charlie Parr, decorated multi-instrumentalist Brennen Leigh, and numerous others. View the initial lineup below, with more artists to be announced in the coming weeks.

Committed to uplifting fresh and noteworthy voices alongside their legacy counterparts, Grey Fox is proud to share its 2024 class of Emerging Artists—hand-selected from dozens of applicants—including trailblazing South Korean bluegrass group Country GongBang (the most recent recipient of the IBMA International Band Performance Grant Program), plus The Clements Brothers, Into The Fog, The Cross-Eyed Possum, Rachel Sumner & Traveling Light, Mild Goose Chase, and graduates of the American Roots Music Program at Berklee College of Music.

Each year, Grey Fox Bluegrass Festival offers a distinct experience unlike any other. Now in its third consecutive decade of operation, music lovers from every corner of the U.S., Canada, and beyond look forward to savoring the magic of the weekend with first-rate musical performances and unique collaborations, jamming, campsite reunions, dancing, and crafts, all beneath a breathtaking horizon. Known for its diverse array of on-site activities—both official and off-the-cuff—including music and dance workshops, family-friendly entertainment, a songwriting lab, yoga, meditation, and multicultural culinary vendors—Grey Fox Bluegrass Festival is the ultimate getaway for people of all ages, backgrounds, and interests.
