Festival Life

Welcome to the epicenter of all things bluegrass! We're excited about this year's lineup at all our stages where there's something for everyone all the time. Stop by our sponsors' booths and thank them for being involved. Visit our great food, craft, and merchandise vendors. Pace yourself. Drink plenty of water. Get at least a little rest. Meet new friends, and remember to start and end every day with a smile! ENJOY! Thanks for coming!

HOST BAND: Dry Branch Fire Squad
ARTIST-IN-RESIDENCE: Della Mae

GREY FOX HIGH MEADOW

Daytime and Nighttime Stages

Presented by Collings, Deering, Great Northern Catskills, and Northfield

This is it—the main event! Music starts Thursday at 1 p.m. with the Dry Branch Fire Squad's "Welcome to Grey Fox Set" and it's Bluegrass Nirvana straight through the weekend with the most celebrated bands in the business. Enjoy the shade of the tented High Meadow Day Stage (chairs provided). Then switch it up to the High Meadow Night Stage (you'll need to bring your own seating) for the night show. You won't wanna miss Sunday's Gospel Show with Dry Branch Fire Squad. (10-11:30 a.m.). Donations for the local food bank will be collected next to the Info Booth. Thank you in advance.

CREEKSIDE Stage

Sponsored by D'Addario and Event. Co.

Amazing concerts and unique combinations of artists in an intimate tented setting (seats provided). This is where you'll see our Emerging Artist Showcase presented by Hudson Valley Bluegrass Association. Each day kicks off with selected up-and-coming bands from around the country and world! Don't miss any of these incredible shows.

CATSKILL Stage

Sponsored by New Belgium/Bell's Brewing

One of our most popular venues—the tent with a big dance floor that'll be crushing it until the wee hours each night with music by The Travelin' McCourys, Shadowgrass, Casey Driessen, Le Vent du Nord, Pine Leaf Boys, Della Mae, and more! The day starts out quietly as you engage in mindful meditation, followed by Yoga with Lucy and music by "Lotus Blossom Special." Then you'll be ready to learn traditional dances with Quickstep Dance Band with John Kirk and Trish Miller. All day and all night, 'The Cat' is the ACTIVE place to be!

Grey Fox: A Who's Who of Bluegrass Music

GRASS ROOTS Stage

Sponsored by Epic Glamping

One of the best things about bluegrass is the artists' eagerness to share what they know. Come fill up your bluegrass bag of tricks and enjoy workshops by top experts in their fields. It's up close and personal! See Pages 22-23 for what's happening at Grass Roots such as songwriting, an intro to Quebecois music, old time banjo and more. It's the little stage with the great big personality!

JAM CENTRAL STATION

Sponsored by Wind Gap Bluegrass Festival

Closet pickers, this is for you! These two-hour Jam Classes using the Wernick Method, designed by Pete Wernick (Hot Rize), will get you jamming with others in a very short time. Bring your instrument and learn to "play well with others" with Paul and Erin Dube and their crew. Sign up for the free sessions at the tent. Thursday, come by at 2 p.m. to check out the introduction to the program!

Bluegrass Academy for Kids (BGA)

Special thanks to D'Addario

This is our famous music camp for kids, led by Mark Panfil along with a roster of talented and kid-friendly instructors. Stop by and see dozens of kids learning to play and sing bluegrass! Check out the schedule, info about classes, instructors, this year's silent auction, and how to support this great program. On Saturday at 5:45 p.m., don't miss the academy on the High Meadow Night Stage with our Artist-in-Residence, Della Mae! Woo hoo! Come see the future of bluegrass! Support the academy with donations, bidding in the silent auction, and purchasing raffle tickets for this year's spectacular Della Mae Raffle Package inc Grey Fox 2025 tix!

FAMILY Stage

Sponsored by Chester River Alliance of Bluegrass Supporters (CRABS)

This is the place for music, entertainment, crafts, dancing and movies for kids from 2 to 102. Enjoy puppets, magic shows, tie-dyeing, yoga for families, and performances by Steve Charney and his sidekick Harry, Brooksie Wells & Lisa Kay Howard, and so much more! Stop by and see all the "Grey Fox Kits" smiling ear to ear. Have fun and take part in special interactive workshops! When you come for tie-dyeing, please bring only small items like shirts. Some shirts will be available for sale.

Bill Vernon Memorial Scholarships

Thanks to Deering, Collings, Northfield

The Bill Vernon Memorial Scholarship is given to selected students pursuing a college education. This year's recipients are Ethan Church (Newland, N.C.) a sophomore and ETSU (Tenn); Jachin Irwin (West Union, Ohio) a junior at Morehead State University (KY); and Megan Mendenhall (Bedford, MA) who will be a freshman at ETSU. Huge thanks to raffle ticket buyers, sponsors, and individual donors who make this important and life-changing program possible. Congratulations to Ethan, Jachin, and Megan. Come hear them play a tune together during the presentation at the High Meadow stage on Friday, 6:15 p.m.

Greenest Campsite Award

Sponsored by Borwegen Excavation & Repair, Inc.

Our Green Team (aka Trash Crew) will find the most efficient, eco-friendly, creative campsite. All campers are automatically in the running. The winner will be posted at the Info Booth by 7 p.m. on Saturday. The prize is a pair of tickets to Grey Fox 2025.

WEDNESDAY KICKOFF

Open Mic Night (6-8:30 p.m.) In memory of Caroline 'MotherJudge' Isachsen, long-time host of the open mic. Tons of Grey Fox fans are pickers, so it's only natural to give you a chance to strut your stuff on stage. Sign up at the Catskill Stage Wednesday at 4:30 p.m.. All bands must be present at 5:30p to be in the show. Hosted by Kai & Lake Isachsen. Each band has 10 minutes total to set up, play one or two tunes, and exit stage left. No solo acts. Catskill Stage Kickoff (9 p.m.-midnight) Gather at "The Cat" for two of our favorite bands: Jim Gaudet & the RR Boys (3 Bluegrass "Eddie" Awards) and Mark Gamsjager & The Lustre Kings (Ameripolitan Rockabilly Award). You won't want to miss these fun bands.

Zoom Flume Water Park

SPECIAL DISCOUNTS... COOL!

Need to cool off? The great folks at the Zoom Flume are again offering discounts for their spectacular water park just a few miles from here. Special prices Wednesday through Saturday. See ad on Page 38.

Phone Service and WiFi Cafe

Wifi Cafe sponsored by Great Northern Catskills

The public WiFi area is located near the Info Booth. Please conserve bandwidth by using phones only when necessary. Be present! Enjoy live music, friends and family.

What You Need to Know While You're Here

Compassionate Camping

- Roping off areas to save space for people coming later is not allowed. Your campsite should be no more than 20 feet x 25 feet (allowances for large RVs).
 - Campsites should be 10 feet apart.
 - Be inviting to campers looking for space.
 - Park to conserve as much space as possible.
 - See Vehicle Safety Section on next page.
 - Use off the ground camp stoves or grills for cooking. Have fire extinguisher handy. Never leave fires unattended.
 - NO ground fires, fireworks or luminaries!
 - Use trash and recycling barrels as marked.
 - QUIET CAMPING hours are 10 p.m. - 8 a.m. Shhh... the baby is sleeping! Zzzzzz.
 - Drive only when necessary to reduce the chance of an accident and to reduce our footprint on this hay farm.
- ALWAYS USE THE RED/YELLOW/GREEN COLORED FLAG SYSTEM!
- No smoking in performance or food areas. Field-strip all materials. No butts on the ground!
 - Be kind and considerate of neighbors.
 - For legitimate health and safety concerns seek Security or Medical assistance. "If you see something, say something."

THE HIGH MEADOW CAMPING AREA is for tent camping only. You may drive up and drop your gear at the turn-around Wednesday and until Noon Thursday. Then park in the Car Corral across the street. On Sunday morning you can drive back up to the turn-around to get your gear under the direction of our staff. Sorry! Driving to your campsite is not allowed. Only go to the turn-around!

Shuttle Buses and Handicapped Assistance

Free buses loop from Day Parking to the High Meadow Stage turn-around with stops at the Ticket Gate, Handicapped Camping, Catskill Stage, Medical Tent. See festival map on Pages 8-9 for stops.

HANDICAPPED VISITORS: Ask for an HC vehicle sticker upon arrival. You'll be directed to HC area. There is a tented HC transport stop across from HC Camping/ Parking and near the HC Tent in the High Meadow Stage area (see map). We're here to help. Please call to arrange a ride from our courteous staff.

HC Transportation: 518-261-4350
(8 a.m.-11 p.m.) 518-261-4350

First Aid: 518-261-4351
(After 11 p.m.)

24 Hour Hotlines

SECURITY/ EMERGENCIES

Safety/Fire/Medical Emergencies

518-261-4352

A Few Basic Health Tips

- Our First Aid Tent is open 24 hours per day. It is located on lower vendor area across from the Info Booth. See map on Pages 8-9
- Keep hydrated. Water! Water! Water!
- Use sun screen several times a day.
- Pace yourself. Get the rest you need. (Yes, we KNOW it's a festival!)
- Protect yourself from ticks. Ticks spread Lyme Disease. Use insect repellent and check yourself daily. Stay away from the woods, leaf litter and tall grasses (favorite tick habitat).
- Avoid foot injuries. Always wear shoes.
- Use a flashlight at night to keep from twisting and ankle, falling, etc.

LOST CHILDREN should be taken to the First Aid Tent on lower Vendor Row. An announcement will be made ASAP to help reunite parent and child. Know where your children are at all times. Write your children's names and contact info on their wristband. Make sure children know where you're camped. Let's be careful out there!
KNOW WHERE YOU'RE CAMPED AND PARKED: Things look VERY different as we fill up, especially at night! Be sure you and your kids know your Grey Fox address. Separated from your party? Make a plan in advance.

CAMPING ASSISTANCE

We're Here to Help!

Are you new to Grey Fox? Not sure where you're going? Haven't found a spot? Ask our staff at the Traffic & Safety Tent can you locate a camping space. Ask us!

We suggest meeting at the Info Booth "on the hour." It won't be long before you hook up. And you won't waste time looking for each other. It works!

To All Attendees

- Every attendee must wear a valid wrist band.
- Camping is allowed with full festival ticket only. Camping is valid from 7 a.m. Wednesday through 5 p.m. Sunday.
- Vehicles must display a valid parking sticker on the windshield or risk being towed and fined.
- Day visitors must leave the festival within 60 minutes of the end of each night's show. Don't drink and drive. Have a designated driver.

Vehicle Safety

- Please either park in the Car Corral or stay parked at your campsite for the weekend. It increases safety, creates more camping space and lessens our impact on the hay fields here at the Walsh Farm. Drive only if you must!
- Take as little space as possible when parking. Think small!
- Work with your neighbors to make your experience safe and fun.
- Report unsafe conditions to Traffic and Safety headquarters or Security.
- Follow our new flag system (below):

Look for Our Traffic Flags

For the safe movement of vehicles, colored flags will wave at several locations around the grounds.

GREEN = It's safe to drive (-5 mph).

YELLOW = If you leave the site, you risk not getting your car back to your camp.

RED = Do NOT move any vehicles!

LOST & FOUND is located at the Information Booth (open 24 hours) across from First Aid.

CELL PHONE SERVICE: AT&T and VERIZON should both be working on site. Use your phone only when necessary for communications. Conserve bandwidth! No streaming or big downloads.

GREY FOX WIFI CAFE: Located in the vicinity of the Info Booth. Please use for data only.

CELL PHONE CHARGING OUTLETS: Located next to the Information Booth. Bring your own cord!

ATM MACHINES: Located next to the First Aid Tent in the lower field and near the food booths "up top."

Belgium/Bell's 'Gig Rig' Stage:
The Place for Encore Sets

Stop by the New Belgium/Bell's Gig Rig Unplugged on Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoon and into the early evening. It's a fantastic chance to catch encore performances by our Emerging Artists and other festival faves. It's the coziest venue at Grey Fox with a hometown pub atmosphere. Grab a refreshing Voodoo Ranger or Hard Charged Tea. Pull up a chair and enjoy these laid-back acoustic sets.

The New Belgium/Bell's Gig Rig Unplugged is easy to find. On vendor row, across from the First Aid Tent and next to the Info Booth. Check out the schedule and plan a stop or two or three. Have fun!

Family Stage Performers

Americana Family Jamboree

AMERICANA FAMILY JAMBOREE & REVIEW performs old time, bluegrass, folk, blues and more! Bring your dancing shoes and be ready to sing and dance with square dance caller Megan Downes! Led by Demolition String Band members Elena Skye and Boo Reiners, the shows are fun for kids but safe for grown-ups!

For years now, children have been watching the AMY SEABROOK PUPPETS at Grey Fox. Amy helps bring topics like honesty and fairness to life with her handmade puppets. The shows are interactive, and the children use puppets to make their own ideas heard. Amy also teaches puppet workshops at Grey Fox which are a bit like magic.

BANJER DAN (Dan Mazer) mixes bluegrass, folk, oldies, and other styles of acoustic music. Dan plays the 5-string banjo, guitar, mandolin, and dobro. He has performed all over the U.S. and internationally as a solo artist, in symphony orchestras, and as a member of several bands. He's played stages like Grey Fox, High Sierra, and the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts.

DOUG AND JULIE JAY are science teachers who use music to relate the wonders of the natural world to learners young and old. They weave storytelling, dance, catchy melodies, and rhythms into their music. The music combines the message of nature, the fun-loving feelings of being a kid, and the joy of discovering the wonders of the amazing world around us.

FAMILY YOGA is for parents, children, and all those needing some stretching and relaxation. Bring your mat, towel, and an open mind for Hatha and Vinyasa yoga which includes gentle stretches, standing postures, relaxation, and guided meditation all led by Helen. Namaste.

THE FRIENDSHIP BAND is the creation of Marjie McKee and Laurie Shea. Their shows address issues such as self-esteem, following your dreams, personal safety, and peer pressure. They focus on a positive message, via magic, puppets, crafts, and songs to reinforce the subject matter.

HOOPS BY JEN will teach basic hula hooping skills and tricks to kids and adults. There will be limited demo hoops available to use, so feel free to bring your own. Hula hoops for kids and adults will be available for purchase after the workshop.

JUGGLING WITH ROB is an interactive juggling workshop for kids of all ages. Join us for games and creative instruction to teach you the basics of 3 ball juggling. Just bring a smile - we'll provide the equipment!

KEY WILDE & FRIENDS is Key Wilde, Christie Alderman (bass), Aimee Burgoyne-Black (fiddle), Mr. Clarke (guitar) and Andy von Aulock (mandolin). They create a world where dogs think they're frogs and pigs grow to be as big as 18 Wheelers. Audiences will meet Chuckers the oversized cat and Armando the hardworking armadillo. Come sing along and learn how Mary the Fairy learns to fly.

RAINBOW FAMILY SONGS Brooksie Wells is a well-known artist on the folk scene. While raising her kids, she performed for children and released Pineapples, Butterflies, and Dinosaurs. She writes songs for little ones and invites them up to sing with her. Touring musician Lisa Kay Howard, accompanies Brooksie on mandolin and vocals. Bring your youngest music fans out to see them and join in the fun!

SILLY SALLY'S BUBBLE SHOW (Liz Hartford) steps into a world of wonder! Bubbleologist Silly Lizzy brings comedy and clowning to her mesmerizing bubble tricks. She uses bubbles and audience interaction to tell stories, perform magic tricks, and even recycle! She and the audience will create a Bubble World with kids and bubbles of all sizes!

STEVE CHARNEY & HARRY have been festival favorites since Harry was just a twig. Now, when Steve Charney says he's the greatest bluegrass musician in the country he's not bragging...he's lying. But he is a fine magician and ventriloquist. And don't think his act is just for kids. Grownups laugh just as much as the tykes. He's written dozens of songs and published over 15 books. But Harry, Steve's dummy, is the real star of the show, which is the reason Steve keeps him around. Come laugh. Bring a grown-up who likes to belly laugh too.

STONE SOUP FAMILY EDITION is composed of two musical families born on the hills of the Winterhawk Bluegrass Festival. An ever-evolving family band, Melissa Bladek and Joey Sinchak grew up wandering the festival, and soaking up the music and spirit of Grey Fox. They are joined by their parents, Suzanne and David Bladek and Joe Sinchak, who have been favorites at the Family Stage for years, along with Sharon Charles and Mike Whitney.

THE SWAMP WEASELS have been performing for nearly 40 years. As a college duo, and later a full band, they developed their harmonies and their performances to become a favorite in the Delmarva region. As their families grew, so did their music, accommodating the whimsical tastes of their kids and others in the crowd. Their music is fun and illustrates what decades of shared music and friendship can produce.

Plus instrument-making, crafts, movies, tie-dyeing and so much more! Enjoy every minute at the Family Stage, camping, meeting new friends, and hearing music on our many stages.

Wednesday Night Festival Kickoff

Jump start your Grey Fox weekend with festivities at the exciting Catskill Stage! First up is our popular annual Open Mic, started years ago by Caroline “Mother Judge” Isachsen and now hosted by her sons, Kai and Lake Isachsen. We know that over half of Grey Fox fans are pickers and many play in bands. Open Mic is your chance to show us what you can do. Here’s how it works:

Mother Judge Open Mic

- 3-4 p.m. Sign up to participate at the Catskill Stage. 18 Bands Max. Bands only. No solo acts. No repeats.
- 5:30 p.m. All bands MUST BE PRESENT to find out the order of bands and to hear instructions.
- 6-9 p.m. PERFORMANCES
Each band has 10 mins total to set up, play 1-2 songs, and exit.

Catskill Kickoff Shows

Two of our favorite bands from the Capital Region will thoroughly entertain early campers with two great sets of bluegrass and rockabilly music. What a way to kick off our favorite week of the year!

- 9:15-10:15 p.m. Jim Gaudet and The Railroad Boys
Edison Award winner for Best Country/Bluegrass Band, '22-'23-'24
- 10:30-midnight Mark Gamsjager and The Luster Kings
Ameripolitan Rockabilly Award winner

A Little Concert Etiquette Goes a Long Way!

A few guidelines to help everyone enjoy the amazing music at Grey Fox.

- CHAIR & TARP AREA for regular lawn and beach chairs is the left side of the High Meadow amphitheater (from stage to sound booth). Tarps and blankets may not be more than 6x9 feet. See map.
 - CHAIRS & TARPS can be left in the High Meadow Night Stage amphitheater at the end of the night. Take valuables and trash each time you leave.
 - DANCE AREA (No-Chair Zone) is the right third of the amphitheater from stage to sound booth. See map.
 - SUNBRELLAS may be set up around the perimeter of the High Meadow Amphitheater. See map on Pages 8-9.
 - SHHHHH! Keep conversations low during performances. It’s the Grey Fox Way.
 - CELLPHONES should be set to manner mode. Leave performance areas to make or receive calls.
 - TO TAKE PHOTOS, use the center aisle (not front row). Do not block the view of others for more than snapping a few photos. Get in; get out.
 - NO SMOKING in any food or concert area, including all tents and high meadow amphitheater. Go beyond the perimeter of any venue to smoke. Field-dress all butts.
- THANK YOU!

“Oh, Didn’t They Ramble” The Story of Rounder Records Ken Irwin (Rounder Founder) with Steve Martin (Unreal Bluegrass Radio Show)

Friday: 1:15-2:15

Since 1970, Rounder Records has been one of the world’s leading folk labels. Their belief in the power of music to connect and inspire people resulted in one of the most eclectic catalogs in the history of recorded music. “Oh, Didn’t They Ramble,” is the label’s definitive story, drawing on archives and interviews with artists, staff, and founders—Ken Irwin, Marian Leighton Levy, and Bill Nowlin. This session will delight anyone who cares about the place of music in American culture. Book signing afterward.

Brennen Leigh (Fri)

Prepare to be whisked away to the soul of classic country with Brennen Leigh. This American singer, songwriter, guitarist, and mandolinist is a cult legend around the world, enchanting listeners with her sharp storytelling style. This Grammy nominee's songs, covered by industry giants like Lee Ann Womack and Rodney Crowell, demonstrate her skill as a songwriter. Celebrated for her artistry, Leigh's latest album, Ain't Through Honky Tonkin' Yet, is a timeless homage to vintage country complete with high-octane fiddle, mournful steel guitar, and angelic backing vocals. Check out her songwriter workshop with Celia Woodsmith (Della Mae), and Tammy Rogers (The Steeldrivers).

Casey Driessen's Red Shoe Stringjam (Fri)

Some of the most memorable festival moments—for artists and audience alike—are the ones we understand may never happen again. Casey Driessen's Red Shoe Stringjam [festival edition] sets the stage for once-in-a-lifetime musical experiences by putting together one-night-only bands, inviting us to embrace the moment. Curated and led by Casey, this set is a joyous jam collective that has never performed together before and exists only in our singular time and place. This rare opportunity welcomes the audience to glimpse the private backstage experience, full of spontaneous excitement and energy created when diverse musicians find common ground and propel each other to new places. Casey's spectacular "core" band will be Leslie Dominick, Kyle Tuttle, Vicky Vaughn, and Cody Kilby. Then there's the stream of special guests we'll only know as they magically appear. Is there a word for "beyond unique"? Rolling Stone says: "Driessen pours all he's seen into his instrument; the result is both breathtaking and transformative."

Casey Driessen

Catfish in the Sky (Thu)

Catfish in the Sky is Ruth Shumway (fiddle), Sammy Wetstein (cello), Owen Miller (cajón), and Sho Humphries (guitar and ukulele). The quartet combines styles from the diverse musical worlds they each come from, bringing together traditional Americana music with Celtic, jazz, and rock traditions, filling it all with a healthy dose of improvisational creativity. They have performed at venues like the Berklee

Performance Center, Appaloosa, and IBMA. Catfish in the Sky is part of the Berklee College of Music Showcase.

Charlie Parr (Fri)

Charlie Parr is a folk troubadour who loves music more than anything. From Minnesota, he plays acoustic blues guitar like a wizard, writes songs like a poet, and sings old tunes like a storyteller. He has made 19 albums in 20 years and he's always on the move, doing shows everywhere. His music sounds like the blues and folk heroes of the past, but his sound is uniquely Charlie Parr. Like Grey Fox fans, he knows music is something magical and eternal, and he respects the folk tradition that he's part of. He's not here to claim or explain anything; he's just here to play and share. In 2021, he released "Last of Better Days Ahead," a Smithsonian Folkways album that showed his guitar and storytelling skills. In 2024, he's back with "Little Sun," a bold and honest album that follows his path through the blues and folk traditions and shows his talent as a poet. Listen good, folks.

Charm City Junction (Thu)

Baltimore-based Charm City Junction is a quartet that blends Old Time, Irish, bluegrass, and more. With fiddle, clawhammer banjo, button accordion, and upright bass, they take roots music to new heights while honoring the tradition. Band members include Brad Kolodner, clawhammer banjo wizard and four-time Clifftop finalist; Bryan McDowell on fiddle; Sean McComiskey playing button accordion; and Alex Lacquement the versatile bassist and skilled arranger. Together, the band has been amazing audiences since 2014. They are loved by Grey Fox fans, known for their fascinating mix of bluegrass, Old Time, Celtic, with some jazz overtones. Come for the music and prepare to be charmed.

Chris Jones & The Night Drivers (Sat)

If you love your bluegrass elegant, driving, original, and sometimes funny, you will love Chris Jones & The Night Drivers. Led by Chris Jones, one of the finest singers and guitarists in the genre, the Nashville-based Night Drivers include Mark

Grey Fox Artists

The Clements Brothers

Country GongBang

Stoffel (mandolin), Nelson Williams (bass), and Grace Van't Hof (banjo and ukulele). Together they deliver tight arrangements, emotional authenticity, and humor. We're not the only ones saying this. They have won 11 IBMA awards, released 14 albums, and topped the charts 22 times. Their latest album, "Make Each Second Last," is their first all-original collection and has produced eight #1 songs, including the title track and the IBMA Song of the Year nominee "Riding the Chief." Regulars at festivals nationwide and the Grand Ol' Opry, we're thrilled to finally have them at Grey Fox.

The Clements Brothers (Fri)

It's tough to call them emerging artists since we've seen The Clements Brothers before. Grey Fox fans will remember them as a dynamic part of the Lonely Heartstring Band. Now, identical twins George (guitar) and Charles Clements (upright bass), make their return in a trio with Mike Harmon (drums). The siblings have been making music together since they were kids, and their tight vocal harmonies and knack for finding just the right melody, reflect their deep musical bond. Whether they're playing original songs or putting their own spin on classics, they blend roots, rock, bluegrass, jazz, and classical influences to create a sound that is both familiar and fresh.

Darol Anger and Bruce Molsky

The Cross-Eyed Possums

The Cross-Eyed Possums (Fri)

If you love the harmonies of Crosby, Stills & Nash and the inventiveness of The Punch Brothers, you'll love emerging artists, The Cross-Eyed Possum. This Prescott, Arizona-based trio consists of brothers Jason Howard (upright bass, vocals) and Jonah Howard (guitar, vocals), with Keenan Hammack (mandolin, vocals). They play around a single mic that showcases their tight vocal harmonies and dynamic instrumental skills. The group performs mostly original music written by the Howard brothers—inspired by the Americana, rock, bluegrass, folk they grew up with; their jazz and classical college experiences; and stories of life on the road. On the heels of their 2023 album "Out On My Own," they've been touring nationally, playing at major festivals such as Pickin' in the Pines and the Huck Finn Jubilee. Enjoy!

Darol Anger and Bruce Molsky (Fri)

These two creative powerhouses have been friends and musical collaborators for years. When we called Darol to try on the idea of he and Bruce performing together at Grey Fox 2024, he laughed and said, "Funny you should ask! Bruce is here now and we're working on a new project. It'll be done by July and we'd love to bring it to Grey Fox." Talk about serendipity! Leader of Molsky's Mountain Drifters, Bruce Molsky also holds the title of "Visiting Scholar in the American Roots Music Program" at Berklee College of Music, where he is the go-to guy for the next generation of roots musicians. A short list of musicians with whom he has collaborated include Andy Irvine, Donal Lunny, Tony Trischka, Aly Bain, Jerry Douglas, Michael Doucet, Allison deGroot, etc. Freestyle fiddler, composer, producer and educator, Darol Anger is at home in any musical genre, some of which he helped to invent. He's been an integral part of Republic Of Strings, Turtle Island String Quartet, David Grisman Quintet, The Montreux Band, his current touring group Mr Sun, and others. Fasten your seatbelts!

Della Mae

Country GongBang (Thu/Fri/Sat)

Make welcome the Korean bluegrass band, Country GongBang, who show that bluegrass music continues to be loved around the world. Winners of the 2023 IBMA International Band Performance Grant, this young group is making its debut at Grey Fox. The quintet plays contemporary bluegrass with a Korean twist. They've gained international fans through social media and have played at IBMA World of Bluegrass, as well as festivals in France and Japan. Their performance at the IBMA Virtual World of Bluegrass created a buzz and helped earn them the 2023 performance grant, which assists provides their 2024 U.S. tour. We are thrilled to have them as Grey Fox Emerging Artists.

Della Mae (Thu/Fri/Sat)

Artist-in-Residence 2024! Della Mae is a band close to our hearts. From their earliest days as a unit to their current status as stars of the contemporary bluegrass scene, they've captivated audiences with their unique take on the genre and their commitment to making a difference. Kimber Ludiker on fiddle and Celia Woodsmith on guitar and vocals are the founding members, joined by Avril Smith on guitar and mandolin, and current IBMA Bass Player of the year, Vickie Vaughn on bass. Their travels have taken them around the globe, where they've shared their music and message with people from all walks of life. Grey Fox is thrilled to have Della Mae as our 2024 A-I-R, which means we'll see even more of them than before! They've planned MORE pop-up appearances than any of our previous resident artists. Way more!

Del McCoury Band (Fri)

Even among the pantheon of music's finest artists, Del McCoury stands alone. From the nascent sound of bluegrass that charmed hardscrabble hillbilly honkytonks, rural schoolhouse stages, to the crowning glory of the Grand Ole Opry and the present-day culture-buzz of viral videos and digital streams, Del is the living link. He is a National Endowment for the Arts Fellow, Grammy recipient, and IBMA award winner many times over. Leading the Del McCoury Band, with sons Ronnie (mandolin) and Rob (banjo), the ensemble continues to be a peerless torchbearer for the entire sweep and scope of bluegrass history, with wider and wider audiences in other genres. Jason Carter (fiddle) and Alan Bartram (bass) round out the group with their beautiful playing and singing. We're thrilled to have him back at Grey Fox year after year. The DMB has a new recording out just this summer called Songs of Love and Life. Take one home with you!

Dry Branch Fire Squad

(Thu/Fri/Sat/Sun)

From the early days of the Winterhawk Bluegrass Festival to the wonderful days of the world-renowned Grey Fox Festival, Dry Branch Fire Squad has served as the Host Band each year. Noted for its 'aggressively traditional' bluegrass music, the band adheres to the mountain culture of its predecessors, many of which the band has introduced to both the festivals over the years. DBFS works together like a well-oiled machine relying on the music and ideas it has brought to the stage during its 49 years in the business of song and fun. The band is known for its subtle humor as well as its many recordings, a full-length movie, performing at more than 100 individual festivals around the world, some many times over. A true affection for their loyal fans is palpable at any performance (and vice versa).

The Faux Paws (Sat)

New this year to Grey Fox, The Faux Paws defy standard genre labels with their diverse musical style, blending raging fiddle tunes, saxophone solos, and unrequited love songs. The trio's infectious groove and feel-good folk music have evolved over a decade of playing together, creating a sound that transcends stylistic boundaries. Brothers Andrew (guitar) and Noah VanNorstrand (fiddle and feet), known from the band Great Bear Trio are joined by Chris Miller (banjo, dobro, saxophone, and others), who also performs with the Grammy-nominated group The Revelers. Their debut album, "The Faux Paws," showcases their bi-coastal journey, drawing from varied influences like contra dance, bluegrass, jazz, and pop. Ten years in the making, the album is a joyful collection rooted in the raw humanity of folk traditions.

The Gibson Brothers (Thu)

The Gibson Brothers have been captivating Grey Fox audiences with their soulful harmonies, masterful picking, and heartfelt songwriting for over two decades. The New York Times calls them "bluegrass superstars," and for good reason. Eric (banjo) and Leigh Gibson (guitar) have always stayed true to their roots and their passion for music. "When I hear someone like the Gibson Brothers, I know it's them from the first note," says legendary performer Del McCoury. "They have that thing in their voices that no one else has."

Leigh and Eric and their fine band are always a crowd favorite, and for good reason. They bring energy, charisma, and authenticity to every show, and they make every audience feel like family. We are thrilled to have them back at Grey Fox this year, and we can't wait to hear their latest songs as well as their classic hits. The Gibson Brothers always deliver.

Place a bunch of "old friends" in a room. Each breathes his or her instrument, finding rhythms and sounds as they explore. Stir.

I Draw Slow

Into The Fog

Welcome to Hawktaill. This trio's members, no strangers to Grey Fox, bring orchestral sweeps and sparse vigils, with strains of the American South and the North Atlantic. The band includes fiddler Brittany Haas, bassist Paul Kowert, and guitarist Jordan Tice. Though at first glance they look like an acoustic super-picker side-project, their all-original music is cohesive and unique, distinguishing them as an ensemble with a sound built from the ground up. We all know Brittany, whose 2004 self-titled release instantly became the touchstone for a generation of old-time fiddlers. But she has since lent her sound to Crooked Still, Live From Here, Steve Martin, and David Rawlings, where she played alongside Kowert, well known as the Punch Brothers' virtuosic bass player. Tice is a rare guitar player whose music showcases his unique identity and a particular knack for song and tune-writing. Melt into the music of Hawktaill for a cosmopolitan sound you wouldn't expect from a string band.

I Draw Slow (Fri)

I Draw Slow is not your typical bluegrass band. An Irish band influenced by the sounds of Appalachia, folk, rock, Americana, sixties pop, cinematic soundscapes and even the funeral jazz of New Orleans. OK, sign us up. That is quite different. And we think you'll love them too, from their ethereal voices to their other-worldly sounds. The group is led by brother-sister songwriting duo Dave Holden (guitar/vocals) and Louise Holden (vocals). Joining them are Konrad Liddy (upright bass), Colin Derham (banjo), and Adrian Hart (fiddle). Their latest album of four is self-titled and was released in 2023. Whether they are playing traditional tunes with clawhammer banjo and fiddle, or rocking out with electric guitar and drums, I Draw Slow always delivers. Writes the Irish Times, "Dublin roots band I Draw Slow have created their own identity, their own sound. It is not just Louise Holden's expressive voice, nor the bustling enthusiasm of the five-piece band, but [it] is most evident in how they approach the broad roots genre, spurning cliché and playing with structure."

Jim Gaudet and The Railroad Boys

Joe Newberry

Into the Fog (Sat)

Raleigh, NC's Into The Fog will bring you into their world of bluegrass roots, with psychedelic jams and pushing the boundaries of newgrass. Another of our stellar Emerging Artists, ITF blends timeless songwriting with electrifying mandolin grooves and soaring vocals. The group features Brian Stephenson (guitar), Winston Mitchell (mandolin), Derek Lane (bass), and Connor Kozlosky (electric guitar). Together they weave tight harmonies with influences from funk to bluegrass. The band has released two studio albums and has one live record, "Volume One," which was released last year. Merlefest Band Competition winners in 2021, they have shared the stage with Sam Bush, Keller Williams, Shadowgrass, and many others, and we're thrilled to have them debut at Grey Fox.

Jim Gaudet and The Railroad Boys (Wed/Sat)

A Capital Region treasure and a festival favorite, Jim Gaudet & The Railroad Boys return to Grey Fox. Are they bluegrass? Yes, plus they play incredible original songs and dive into different genres. Jim sings with a unique and authentic style that draws you in with humor and emotion, always "fresh and powerful." Jim's songwriting is as good as it gets, each song telling a unique story. They won Country/Bluegrass Artist of the Year at the Capital Region Thomas Edison "Eddies" Music Awards in 2022, 2023, and 2024, and rightly so. Rounding out the Railroad Boys are Bob Buckley (bass), Sten Isachsen (mandolin), Sara Milonovich or Tucker Callander (fiddle), Richie Pagano (piano). This band has a ton of fun onstage and share their friendship with the audience. This year, they'll be kicking off the Catskill Dance Stage in style as the festival adds bands for the first time on Wednesday Night. Join the rabble-rousing Railroad Boys and start the weekend off right!

Joe Newberry (Fri/Sat)

We just can't get enough of Joe Newberry. A longtime friend of Grey Fox, Joe is a renowned clawhammer banjo player, guitarist, singer, and songwriter. Originally from Missouri, where he learned fiddle tunes from local masters, Joe now calls North Carolina home. His songwriting prowess has earned him IBMA awards for "Singing As We Rise" and "They Called It Music." Joe's musical talents have graced stages like "A Prairie Home Companion" and "Transatlantic Sessions," and mighty collaborations with musicians like Mike Compton and April Verch. Beyond performing, Joe is a dedicated educator, sharing his passion for old-time music at camps and festivals while charming audiences with his captivating storytelling. Come see Joe on stage and don't miss his two-day Songwriting Lab!

John, Trish, and Quickstep

John, Trish, and Quickstep

(Thu/Fri/Sat)

Fiddle tunes, folksongs and fancy footwork will be featured from this lively ensemble – John Kirk is lead vocalist and instrumental wizard on fiddle mandolin & more, Trish Miller plays banjo, guitar and provides fancy footwork with percussive dance steps. They both call dances and have a driving dance band featuring Sara Milonovich & John on harmony fiddles, Trish playing guitar, David Kiphuth on banjo, and Greg Anderson on bass. Together, this group has provided dance workshops at the Catskill Stage for over a generation. Old time music is the focus, while they like to mix it up with Celtic, early country, original, and humorous songs, and step dance instruction. Bring your water bottle and comfy shoes to join the community dancing and fun at the Catskill Stage. Plus! Be sure catch John, Trish, and Sara's workshop at the Grass Roots Stage where they'll share the music of the Adirondack and Catskill Mountains.

Le Vent du Nord (Thu)

A jewel in Québec's folk music scene, Le Vent du Nord brings a glorious mix of tradition and global sounds to the stage. This acclaimed quintet boasts an impressive portfolio: over 2,500 performances across continents, numerous awards, and a groundbreaking symphonic concert that challenges folk tradition. Nicolas Boulerice, wielding his electro-acoustic hurdy-gurdy and piano, weaves enchanting melodies and vocals. André Brunet, with fiddle and foot-tapping finesse, adds a vocal charm. Réjean Brunet infuses the rhythm section with his multi-instrumental talents, including basses and diatonic accordion, while Olivier Demers energizes with fiddle, mandolin, and foot-tapping. André Gagné completes the group with his resonant bouzouki, guitar, and

The Mammals (Fri)

Described as American trailblazers, the husband-wife duo of Mike Merenda (guitar, banjo, vocals) and Ruth Ungar (fiddle, ukulele, vocals) lead The Mammals, a quintet that effortlessly spans the horizons of Americana, from soulfully harmonized indie-folk ballads to zealous fiddle and banjo-driven foot stompers. Ruth's dad is Jay Ungar, writer of the famed melody "Ashokan Farewell," which the group also performs. Meanwhile, these gentlemanly activists come with a catalog of well-crafted songs that question politicians and raise issues to probe how we can improve the planet. The Mammals bring it all to the stage with passion and joy. Come celebrate with them!

Mark Gamsjager

Mark Gamsjager and The Lustre Kings (Wed/Thu)

In their 27th year of touring, from New York to New Orleans, Boston, Belgium and Beyond, Mark Gamsjager & The Lustre Kings have matured into one of America's great roots rock combos, with a distinctive sonic stamp courtesy of Mark's big voice and Gretsch guitar. The Albany-based band stakes a claim to a modern take on the reverb-driven sounds of early rock, leaning also on touchstones of country, blues and R&B. The Lustre Kings are also the longtime backing group for "Queen of Rock" Wanda Jackson, who praises Mark and crew. "Their fine showmanship and musical ability make them great in my book." Joining the Luster Kings is Dave Chappell (Spellcasters), of DC, one of the finest country jazz guitarists anywhere. They close Wednesday Night's show at the Catskill Stage so don't be a square, be there.

Martha Trachtenberg (Sat)

As a founder of The Buffalo Gals, the first all-female bluegrass band in the US, Martha was their go-to songwriter and the beat goes on to this day. Her songs have been covered by Tony Trischka, Missy Raines, Nothin' Fancy, and more. You'll want to catch Martha, Joe Newberry, Chris Jones, and Jim Gaudet's heartfelt song swap at the Grass Roots Stage. After you fall in love with her songs, you'll want her latest CD, "About Time" featuring Tony Trischka, Marty Stuart, Dede Wyland, and Barry Mitterhoff. She's the real deal.

Mike + Ruthy (Sat)

Topically minded songwriter/banjoist, Mike Merenda, and second-generation fiddler/songwriter, Ruth Ungar Merenda front the vibrant band The Mammals and the heartfelt duo Mike + Ruthy. Through four presidencies they have held up a folkified mirror to America(na) and through their recordings and performances they continue to express a hopeful vision normally not associated with their generation (X). When Mike + Ruthy take the stage, prepare for thought-provoking lyrics, off-the-cuff anecdotes that connect the dots, and music with a backbone as well as a back beat.

Mike + Ruthy

Mild Goose Chase (Thu)

Forget bluegrass banjos and mandolins, Mild Goose Chase rewrites the folk duo script with a cello and a guitar. Nashville's Scott Peters (cello, banjo, vocals) and Winston-Salem, NC's Sam Amos (guitar, vocals) weave spellbinding harmonies over their unique sonic canvas. Imagine a fiddle dancing a jig with a soulful guitar, while a mischievous cello lays down funky grooves. Their debut album, "A Tentative Debut," is anything but tentative. Their music is a joyful blend of raucous tunes and introspective ballads. Don't be fooled by their "mild demeanor," these musical geese are anything but ordinary.

Missy Raines and Allegheny (Sat)

We're thrilled to have bluegrass trailblazer Missy Raines and Allegheny at Grey Fox 2024. With fresh sounds from their album "Highlander," Missy brings a musical homage straight from the heart of West Virginia. A legendary bassist, vocalist, and songwriter, Missy has not only racked up 14 International Bluegrass

Missy Raines and Allegheny

Molly Tuttle and Golden Highway

Niamh Parsons & Graham Dunne

Music Association honors, including 10 as "Bass Player of the Year," but also earned a GRAMMY® nod in 2020 for "Best Bluegrass Album" for her album "Royal Traveler." Many of our faithful will recall Missy's previous visits with Martha & Eddie Adcock, with Jim Hurst, and of course with The New Hip. Fans can expect the progressive bluegrass vibes of her youth along with the experience she's gained touring with the finest musicians in Nashville, this time with Allegheny members Tristan Scroggins (mandolin), Eli Gilbert (banjo), Ellie Hakanson (fiddle), and Ben Garnett (guitar). We're talking innovation, yet deeply rooted in tradition.

Molly Tuttle and Golden Highway (Fri)

While Molly Tuttle has wowed fans at Grey Fox in the past, sitting in with the likes of Billy Strings and Jerry Douglas, this latest iteration of her band has garnered nothing short of a meteoric rise. With a blend of brand-new originals and old familiar standards, and a Dead tune now and then.... their music ranges from gold miners' adventures to modern-day love stories, all punctuated by Molly's virtuosic guitar solos. "City of Gold," their latest release, is a rich stew of Northern California roots and beautiful storytelling. Golden Highway all-star bandmates are Bronwyn Keith-Hynes on fiddle and vocals, Dominick Leslie on mandolin, Kyle Tuttle on banjo and vocals, and Shelby Means on bass and vocals. Billboard Magazine says of Tuttle, "A vibrant blend of bluegrass with flashes of Old West, anchored by Tuttle's earthy-yet-angelic vocal and the entire group's ace musicianship."

Noel Coakley

Niamh Parsons & Graham Dunne (Sat)

An Irish national treasure, Niamh Parsons has come to be known as one of the most distinctive voices in Celtic music. The great Scottish balladeer Archie Fisher said, "A songstress like her comes along once or twice in a generation." Described in the Boston Herald as both emotionally haunting and tonally as clear as crystal, Niamh's nine albums and countless collaborations have been 'must-have' collector's items for any lover of songs and singing. A songstress in the true sense of the word and a keeper of tradition, Niamh is accompanied by her partner, the multi-talented and versatile Graham Dunne on guitar. Go see them (Creekside/Saturday) and get swept away to Ireland of long ago.

Noel Coakley (Thu/Fri/Sat)

Noel is a certified yoga instructor who's been practicing meditation for 25 years. He is director of the Boston Center for Contemplative Practice, and a therapist offering Buddhist-influenced psychotherapy in the Boston area. He has led morning meditation for several years at Grey Fox and loves providing these healthy sessions for everyone.

Pictrola (Sat)

Pictrola's members first played together as a group at the Delfest Academy in 2017. Since then, their music, creativity, and charisma have skyrocketed. Hailing from the NOVA area the band brings modern themes into traditional bluegrass, incorporating elements from blues, swing, jazz, and rock into unique covers and stylized originals. This year they racked up a Washington Area Music Award (WAMMIE) for Best Bluegrass Song, adding to their Watermelon Park Band Competition win in 2022. Pictrola played as an official emerging artist at Grey Fox Bluegrass

Rachel Sumner and Traveling Light (Sat)

Boston-based singer-songwriter, guitarist, and producer Rachel Sumner left her former band Twisted Pine in 2021 to pursue her own sound. She found it with Traveling Light, a versatile string band that blends folk, bluegrass, and Americana. Along with Mike Siegel on upright bass and Kat Wallace on fiddle and harmonies, Sumner delivers heartfelt songs that showcase her wistful vocals and stellar musicianship. The group's self-titled debut album features six originals and three covers that range from serene to upbeat. NPR calls her "one of the brightest voices in Boston's roots music scene," and we can see why. We're proud to present them as Emerging Artists this year.

Sam Grisman Project (Thu)

There's something innately heartwarming having the son of a legend take center stage. It's been a few years since we've had David "Dawg" Grisman to Grey Fox, and now Samson Grisman (bass) joins us to celebrate the music of his father and Jerry Garcia. Sam grew up listening to the duo and has been inspired to follow in his footsteps with his own innovations, of course. His band includes his best friends, who also happen to be some of the most talented musicians in the country: Ric Robertson (guitar, vocals), Chris J. English (drums, vocals), and Aaron Lipp (guitar, lap steel, banjo, vocals). Together, they play classic Dawg and Jerry songs, as well as their own, with a passion and joy for the music that is contagious and uplifting. The Sam Grisman Project is a band that honors the past, embraces the present, and looks to the future.

Scythian (Thu)

Not many groups can get you dancing, jumping, and raising a glass to their infectious roots music like Scythian, a group named after Ukrainian nomads. Blending Celtic, Eastern European, and

According to DC Music Don't miss their red-hot closing set at the Catskill Stage Thursday night!

Sister Sadie (Thu)

Grey Fox is over the top thrilled to welcome Sister Sadie for the first time! If you're not already a fan, you will be. Their explosive vocals, unique arrangements, poignant songwriting, and stunning instrumentals combine to evoke the very essence of the mountains. The all-female quintet is Deanie Richardson (fiddle), Gena Britt (banjo & vocals), Jaelee Roberts (guitar & vocals), Dani Flowers (guitar & vocals), and Maddie Dalton (bass & vocals). Since their formation in 2012, Sister Sadie has achieved increasing success, winning IBMA awards like Vocal Group of the Year and Fiddle Player of the Year for Richardson. Their accolades include a Grammy nomination for their album "Sister Sadie II" and recognition at the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum's American Currents exhibit. With their third studio album in the works under Mountain Home Records, and recent honors like SPBGMA awards for Roberts and Britt, and a performance at the Grand Ol' Opry, Sister Sadie shines brightly as they enter their second decade.

The Steeldrivers (Fri)

Nashville-based The Steeldrivers are a band that needs no introduction to the Grey Fox faithful. They weave bluegrass roots with country, soul, blues, and contemporary influences to create a unique and fresh sound. Each member brings seasoned expertise to the group, crafting a blend that's both timeless and innovative. With their distinctive mix of bluegrass soul, they've made a mark in progressive bluegrass since 2005. Their music, while grounded in tradition, carries a passionate delivery and a gritty edge, forged early on when now country star Chris Stapleton was in the band. Nominated for four Grammys and winning Best Bluegrass Recording for "The Muscle Shoals Recordings" in 2015, The Steeldrivers continue to redefine the genre. The band features Richard Bailey on banjo, Tammy Rogers on fiddle, Mike Fleming on bass, Brent Truitt on mandolin, and Matt Dame on guitar.

Taproot String Band (Thu)

Tap Root String Band is made up of Aiden Schnell (guitar and vocals), Emma Turoff (mandolin), Chandler Harris (fiddle and vocals), and Wes Shuck (bass). The group has a strong emphasis on reviving old songs and tunes and bringing something new to them with new arrangements and feels to the songs, as well as playing original material written by the group. Tap Root String Band is part of the Berklee College of Music Showcase.

The Travelin' McCourys (Fri)

The Travelin' McCourys, led by brothers Ronnie (mandolin) and Rob (banjo), are steeped in the bluegrass tradition thanks to their father, the legendary Del McCoury. Years of touring in the Del McCoury Band have honed their skills and inspired them to push the boundaries of traditional bluegrass. Joined by fiddler Jason Carter, bassist Alan Bartram, and guitarist Cody Kilby, they've crafted a sound that blends their deep-rooted bluegrass heritage with contemporary influences. The group and each member have been recognized by the International Bluegrass Music Association, a testament to their individual talents and collective synergy. Their collaborations with diverse artists like The Allman Brothers Band, Phish, and Keller Williams showcase their ability to bridge musical genres. Their self-titled debut album merges tradition with a forward-thinking, jamband approach that defines their sound and electrifies their shows.

Tony Trischka's Earljam: A Tribute to Earl Scruggs (Sat)

Tony Trischka is considered the consummate banjo artist and one of the most influential banjo players in roots music today. For more than 50 years, his stylings have inspired a whole generation of bluegrass and acoustic musicians with the many voices he has brought to the instrument. He will be honoring the music of Earl Scruggs, pioneer of the three-finger banjo style and one of the most important musicians in bluegrass. Trischka recently came into possession of extremely rare recordings of jam sessions with Scruggs and John Hartford, and he's transcribed and recorded Scruggs's note-for-note solos from a number of these, many that Earl had never recorded. The highly acclaimed album of that music, Earl Jam (Rounder Records), is hot off the press and includes several bluegrass luminaries including Billy Strings, Molly Tuttle, Darol Anger, Brittany Hass etc. Together with his ace band (Michael Daves on vocals and guitar, fiddler Alex Hargreaves and bassist Jared Engel) they trace the story of Scruggs from his childhood on. "Earl is my North Star, a lifetime pathway. At 13, when I first heard 16 notes of Scruggs style banjo playing, I put down my folk guitar and pestered my parents to buy me a banjo. Once in my hands, that 5-string became my obsession and has been for 60 years."

Twisted Pine (Fri)

Get ready for a musical odyssey with Boston-based, genre-bending Twisted Pine. Kathleen Parks leads with her captivating fiddle and vocals, while Dan Bui adds powerful mandolin. Chris Sartori holds down the rhythm on bass, and Anh Phung brings a fresh perspective with her flute.

Grey Fox Artists

Unspoken Tradition

Yes, flute. You're gonna love it. Together, they have a sound that NPR has praised for its upbeat vibe and virtuosic solos. "Right Now," which dropped in 2020, is a testament to their progressive approach, blending elements of bluegrass, funk, and indie folk into a unique Americana funk sound. With influences ranging from Bela Fleck to the Punch Brothers, Twisted Pine is carving out their own space in the music world. Their inventive arrangements and fearless improvisation make them a must-see act for anyone looking to experience the evolution of traditional music.

Unspoken Tradition (Fri)

OK, so you like the traditional, but you want something fresh, original, heartfelt, and sometimes a bit progressive? You'll love Unspoken Tradition. This North Carolina quintet, features Audie McGinnis (guitar & vocals), Ty Gilpin (mandolin & vocals), Tim Gardner (fiddle & vocals), Sav Sankaran (bass & vocals), and Zane McGinnis (banjo). Together they have a sound that is passionate, nostalgic, hard-driving and sincere. They bring to the table their own influences plus roots and newgrass, with songs that are mostly original and reflect the culture of their home state. Their latest album, "Myths We Tell Our Young," debuted at #5 on the Billboard Bluegrass charts and featured the #1 song "Dark Side of the Mountain." Come here Unspoken Tradition, for a dose of tradition with a fresh twist.

Wyatt Ellis (Sat)

The future of bluegrass looks very bright. Case in point: 15-year-old Wyatt Ellis, who has become one of the most-watched young musicians in bluegrass. Wyatt is a mando wizard, and he's already appeared several times on the Grand Ol' Opry. His debut single, "Grassy Cove," went to #1 on the Bluegrass Today charts and his second single, "Get Lost," debuted on the same chart at #5. The East Tennessee native is a devotee of Bill Monroe, and he's been mentored by folks we know and love, like

Yonder Mountain String Band

Sierra Hull, Bobby Osborne, Mike Compton, and others. In only two years on the scene, Wyatt has become a multi-instrumentalist and has been invited to perform on stage with some of the most iconic musicians of this era, including Billy Strings, Dierks Bentley, Peter Rowan, Sam Bush, Bryan Sutton, Dailey & Vincent, and Marty Stuart. Yes, he's that good. Find out what the buzz is all about.

Yonder Mountain String Band (Sat)

Get your jam on with the legendary Yonder Mountain String Band. The Grammy-nominated quartet, pioneers of the jamgrass movement, are back with a bang in 2024, bringing their signature blend of progressive bluegrass, rock, and improvisation to the High Meadow stage, all sans drums. Adam Aijala (guitar, vocals), Ben Kaufmann (bass, vocals), Dave Johnston (banjo, vocals), and Nick Piccininni (mandolin, banjo, fiddle, vocals) will showcase their new studio albums and revisit classic songs drawn from their

26 years of performing. Notorious for their wild live shows, choice cover tunes, and lengthy onstage experimentations, YMSB earned an especially loyal audience on the jam band circuit. They bring a high-energy sound and psychedelic light show, and they will be joined at Grey Fox by special guest fiddler-shredder Coleman Smith (Rapidgrass, David Lawrence & The Spoonful, The Bluegrass Journeymen). Join

Zoe & Cloyd (Thu)

Get ready for some "klezgrass" magic when Asheville, NC-based Zoe & Cloyd make their debut at Grey Fox. Zoe & Cloyd are Natalya Zoe Weinstein and John Cloyd Miller, a husband-and-wife duo who play fiddle, guitar, mandolin, and banjo. They come from completely different musical backgrounds: Natalya is a classically trained klezmer and jazz musician from Massachusetts, while John is a 12th-generation North Carolinian and grandson of pioneering bluegrass fiddler Jim Shumate. Seasoned educators at Warren Wilson College, they create a unique and captivating sound that blends their traditions and styles. Their fifth album, "Songs of Our Grandfathers," is a tribute to their bluegrass and klezmer roots and has received rave reviews from Bluegrass Unlimited, Bluegrass Situation, and their fans, of course. Their vocal blend will give you goosebumps!

String Recycling

Whoa! More than 600 million strings are produced globally each year, but instrument strings are not recyclable via traditional municipal collection methods. Grey Fox has teamed up with D'Addario as an Official String Recycling Center. Playback, powered by TerraCycle, is a highly awarded, international up-cycling and recycling company that collects difficult-to-recycle packaging and products, and repurposes the material into affordable, innovative products. Look for collection boxes at the D'Addario / Strings by MailMusic Booth where you can stock up on new strings and send your old ones off to their next life. Your help and cooperation are very much appreciated as we work with you to make the world a better place for all musicians. Let's do this!

Appreciating Dr. Dave

For years, Dr. David Weiland, AKA Dr. Dave – cardiologist by day, bluegrass photographer by night – traveled from California to New York to be an essential part of the Grey Fox Media Crew. Since he cannot be here this year, we want to share some of his stunning photos with you. In appreciation of all the amazing Grey Fox moments he so creatively captured with his lens, Thanks, Dave! We wish you all the best.
